ANNOUNCEMENTS

President Killsback-I called the Special Session.

Sam Chestnut-To honor Steve Chestnut, we're working with the college to develop a scholarship for one Northern Cheyenne to go to Steve Chestnut. We hope to award it every year. He worked for the Tribe for nearly 40 years. His connection with the Tribe was very special.

The other group is from the Litman School. We do a cultural exchange. It's a really powerful cultural exchange.

United Methodist Church Presentation

President Killsback-I'd like to add the appointment of Talen Energy appointments. You have a chairman of the Econ Dev. Committee it's usually that the chairman serves at the State level to be on the STED Commission.

NCTS BOARD SEATING-BENJI HEADSWIFT

Sheldon King-The teachers at Busby School are the ones at the bottom of the barrel. My daughter MAP testing, she's 13 and she wouldn't take the test because she's not prepared for it. Not only our education but our culture too.

Dana Eaglefeathers-I agree with you 100%. I think it's premature to judge. I think it's as a result of the previous ad hoc and previous administration to be judged on those. Those were actually done by the previous ad hoc. Give it a year. We haven't given this administration a chance to work.

Sheldon King-You said the previous, that's me you and the others. You always say put the people first, and we didn't hire our own tribal member at the school.

President Killsback-That's something the leadership can look into and look at hiring our own. When they do their board training, all of us be involved in that. It's a BIE school, they're always going to be in jeopardy. Turnout was low, but the people have spoken. Those kinds of issues cannot be forgotten. We need to make sure their accountability with the board that's put into place.

Vice President Fisher-It's a work in process. This is something that the Tribal Council determined was in the best interest of the school. We should focus on ensuring that there's a school board in place and have the resources to move forward to start getting things done over there. We want to celebrate the fact that there's a board in place. We all know what direction we need to take. I fully support the results of the election.
