The Northern Cheyenne Tribe (NCT) is soliciting bids from qualified contractors to conduct a Tribal Premium Sponsorship Program for eligible members through the Montana Health Exchange, a Federally-Facilitated Marketplace. The purpose of engaging in Tribal Sponsorship is to access the substantial health insurance coverage through the Marketplace for eligible tribal members. This is an eight-month service contract for the Board of Health program located within the Northern Cheyenne community in Southeastern Montana.

The proposal should include but not limited to the following criteria:

Scope of Work

- The consultant agrees to establish program standards, hiring and training Tribal Sponsorship Program staff, development of and implementation of Tribal Sponsorship program policies and procedures, development of program application materials, development and implementation of Tribal Sponsorship program policies and procedures, development of program application materials, development and implementation of program enrollment process, development of purchasing process for health insurance policies and development of mechanism for payment of premiums.
- The consultant agrees to provide professional consultant services to the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Board of Health concerning the Tribal health programs, including but not limited, to the startup and implementation of the Tribal Premium Sponsorship Program, including ongoing training for staff.
- The consultant agrees to devote their professional resources to fulfilling the obligations of this agreement.
- Cost breakdown of all work being compensated for services performed under this agreement. Travel expenses will be reimbursed. Mileage will be the current IRS rate (applies only to use of personal vehicles for travel). Postage will be reimbursed for actual costs. The consultant will invoice the Tribe on a monthly basis.

LITTLE WOLF AND MORNING STAR - Out of defeat and exile they led us back to Montana and won our Cheyenne homeland that we will keep forever.
